

Hazards of Childhood.

Physical Hazards

Illness - low immunity ^{leads to} ~~education~~ ^{creates} psychological damage fall behind the peers.

Accidents - cuts, bruises, infections, burns broken bones which can disable them permanently or temporarily obesity can develop diabetes, chubby

Psychological hazards

Speech hazards - ^{speech} ~~not~~ a tool for communication who can not will feel inferior and ~~under~~ inadequate

Emotional dominance

Play hazards - no playmates more see like

Family relationship hazards parent-child if girls feels family prioritize boy start to resent family and brother

Management

- Good health
- encourage and motivate their abilities
- Parental acceptance of annoying childish behavior and guidance to learn to behave in socially appropriate ways
- disciplinary policies well planned and consistently carried out
- show pride in achievements
- Encouragement to play ~~or~~ creatively
- acceptance by siblings

Hazards in Adolescence.

Physical Hazards

Suicide due to socially isolated there can be defects that can be corrected such as poor eyesight, crooked teeth, hearing loss

There can be asthma and obesity look consciousness

Psychological Hazards

social hazards Childish pattern of ^{peer} grouping — Sexual behaviour - Immaturity leads to continued preoccupation with sex, premarital pregnancy, early marriage.

— Moral hazards - set up more high standards of behaviour then feel guilt if they fall short in those standards.

— Family relationships - Immaturity leads to quarrelling with family criticizing them constantly poor family relations also affects relations outside the family.

Management.

- motivation in success
- confident on the abilities
- help them understand realistic goal and their capacities

Hazards of Adulthood,

- Physical appearance changes gray hair, yellow teeth wrinkles
- Vision and hearing issues
- ~~Heart~~ ~~and~~ diseases - Heart & Cancer are common
- Strength and coordination decreases
- ~~Are~~ ~~more~~ they are not immune to relationship problems, cannot handle crises
- less friends as responsibilities are high and

Hazards Oldage.

effects ^{of} physical changes and loss of hearing & vision

- Change in life patterns
- Feeling of guilt about idleness.
- Reduced income
- Social disengagement
- Loneliness
- Living arrangement problems.